BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Bill

If you think your bill is wrong after reviewing details on PAWS, write us (on a separate sheet) at the address shown below as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after a charge has been posted to your account. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, provide us with the following information:

- Your name and student number
- Your address and phone number
- The dollar amount of the suspected error
- Describe the error and explain why you believe there is an error.
- If you need more information, describe the item you are unsure about.

You do not have to pay any amount in question while we are investigating, but you are still obligated to pay the parts of your bill that are not in question. While we investigate your question, we cannot report you as delinquent or take any action to collect the amount you question.
